I am currently the Chief of Police for the Town of Tonawanda Police Department. After high school, I served in the U.S. Marine Corps for six years. I became a police officer in 1995, and have risen through the ranks of patrol officer, lieutenant, captain, assistant chief, and now chief. I love to read, especially about leadership and U.S. military history. Reading has helped me become a successful law enforcement professional. My advice is, just read!
